The Burns Price Foundation (BPF) - Making Peace Building Community - Promoting good citizenship amongst young people in the UK.

BPF offers grants to young people between the ages of 11-18 to fund adult-supervised projects that are for the public benefit and have a community-enhancing purpose. They are particularly keen to support projects that focus on reparation, reconciliation, peace building, restorative justice or care for the local environment. For more information go here

Nineveh Charitable Trust- UK based not for profit organisations and schools can apply for funding to the Nineveh Charitable Trust for a broad range of projects and activities that promote a better understanding of the environment and countryside, whilst facilitating improved access, education and research. Whilst the Trust does not specify a minimum or maximum grant amount that can be applied for, an analysis of previous grants would suggest a maximum of £5,000 per year for up to three years.

Woodland Trust Free Trees- The Woodland Trust has free tree packs to give away to schools as well as useful resources.

Funding for Music Making Activities (UK)

The Michael Tippett Musical Foundation is a small Foundation with funds from the royalties generated by performances, broadcasts and publication of the works of composer Michael Tippett (1905-98). When he set up the Foundation, Tippett said he wanted the funds to go towards young musicians and composers, not towards promoting his own works. As funds are limited the Trustees have decided to focus on one area of musical activity as their single priority, described here
