ALL SCHOOLS to be in allocated seats by 10.15 at the latest for the pre-service welcome and warm up session. Service starts at 10:30 and usually finishes within an hour.

9:45 All Rehearsals

Choir & those involved in dramatic reading will also have opportunity to rehearse from 9:45.

All children involved in readings or prayers will be seated near the front. If possible, they should arrive by 9:45 to allow time to practice at the microphone.

PLEASE REMEMBER TO BRING WITH YOU:

BANNER AND STAND Banner to be left at the back of the venue on arrival. Please bring a stand to avoid banners falling over during the service, and place stand at the front of the church before service.

OFFERING ENVELOPE Each school is invited to bring an offering to support our designated charity, Family Support Work. More information, and fund raising ideas can be found at Fundraise For Us - Family Support Work. One child should be chosen to present your school's named envelope – either containing cheque/cash or details of any BACS transfer that the school has made/will make. They will be invited to come to the back of the venue to process up during the hymn "Prayer of St Richard".

Methods of Donation- please do not make payment to Diocese of Chichester

- Cheques should be made payable to Family Support Work or CDAFSW.
- BACS payment to "Chichester Diocesan Association for Family Support Work"
